FALKENHAYN'S BIG ARMY SWEEPS THROUGH ROUMANIA: CAPTURES TOWNS AND HILLS

Berlin Announces That Infantry Menaces Craiova, Seat of the First Army.

RUSSIA ADMITS LOSS.

Half Million Austro-Germans Threaten to Outflank the Roumanian Troops.

BERLIN, Nov. 21 (by wireless to Sayville.)-German and Austro-Hungarian troops, which are invading Roumania, repulsed several attacks by Russian troops north of Campulung last night. The Teutonic troops ships to be authorized this year will and is are now before Craiova.

The text of the official statement issued to-day is as follows:

"German and Austro-Hungarian troops north of Campulung repulsed several Russian night attacks portant towns and intrenched heights were captured by us from otruggles.

"Our infantry stands before Craiova, which until now has been the seat of the chief command of the First Roumanian Army.

"Front of Field Marshal von Mackensen - Nothing important occurred with the exception of artillery engagements. Constanza and Tehernavoda were shelled.

"Our air squadrons bombarded transportation establishment near Bucharest."

PETROGRAD, Nov. 21 (via London) .- The Roumanian forces in southwestern front have retired in the PETITIONS TO WILSON region of Filliash (Filiachu), forty miles northwest of Craiova, according to an official statement issued to-day by the Russian War Department. LONDON, Nov. 21 .- A wireless despatch from Bucharest to-day says it is rumored in the Roumanian capital that Gen. von Falkenhayn has been recalled from command of the German operations in Transylvania, being replaced by Field Marshal von Macken-

WOMEN ARE FIRST TAKEN FROM BRIDGE OF STEAMER

DOVER, England, Nov. 21 .- With the occasional aid of the searchlight of a British patrol boat, riding on mountainous seas a quarter of a mile away, the crew of the South Downs life-saving station, largely composed of volunteers, rescued in the blackness of the hours just before dawn to-day fifty-three passengers, several of them women, and the crew, believed to number about thirty men, of the American steamship Sibiria, which was blown by a gale on Goodwin Sands early yesteryay.

No more thrilling rescue has been accomplished along this coast, where thrilling rescues have been common for years,
